

ITS 2019

SINCERELY TRUE. ITS OPENS THE DOORS OF ITS NEW HOME: WELCOME AT THE ITS ARCADEMY

ON JULY 12TH, THE CREATIVITY OF THE FUTURE WILL MEET IN TRIESTE FOR ITS – INTERNATIONAL TALENT SUPPORT.

ITS – International Talent Support marks the 2019 edition by opening the doors of its new home: the ITS Arcademy, the space where global creativity is welcomed and shared and where everyone can compete in a positive dialogue that looks to the future.

The ITS Arcademy comes from the international experience of Barbara Franchin and the EVE team, who in 18 years of passionate research have brought to Trieste the best emerging talents in the field of fashion, accessories and jewelry design. By building and nurturing a valuable creative archive of international importance – the ITS Creative Archive – ITS has created the conditions for opening a global gym of creativity, a training and research space open not just for professionals but for any curious experimenter, from the youngest to the oldest.

The ITS Creative Archive is an archive of contemporary art unique in the world, a cultural, social and economic development resource that tells the evolution of contemporary fashion by opening a dialogue between the creations of yesterday, today and tomorrow. It is a growing collection, which includes 17,000 portfolios, over 220 outfits, over 200 accessories and jewelry pieces, more than 700 photographs and 100,000 images. Over the years, institutions such as the Victoria & Albert Museum, the MET, the Galliera museum in Paris and the FIT museum in New York have explored the archive, an inexhaustible source of inspiration for journalists, insiders, students and teachers of schools and universities all over the world.

The term Arcademy comes from the fusion of the words Archive, Ark and Academy. It is a place where former finalists, jurors and the rest of the international ITS network will play an active role; it is a place where innovators, insiders from the fashion industry, scholars and visionary talents will be allowed to exchange experiences while brainstorming on the future of design, actively contributing to its realization.

The ITS Arcademy activities will explore the world of creativity through a wide range of events and courses: from those for the merely curious to those for professionals and companies, through training programs aimed at all age groups and different levels of experience.

The final event of ITS 2019, which will launch the ITS Arcademy, will take place in Trieste on July 12th, where emerging talents from all over the world will be the protagonists and where designers, journalists, trend setters and artists will meet to trace the new routes of creativity and innovation. Together with their teachers and former finalists, ready to support the new generation of the ITS Family.

Barbara Franchin, Founder and Director of ITS: “ITS is a real creative platform that, through a process of evolution and expansion started eighteen years ago, first gave birth to the contest and then the ITS Creative Archive. The ITS Creative Archive is a unique element within the Italian artistic and cultural heritage, a wealth to support and nourish for the benefit of the debate on design in all its forms and an undoubted economic driving force for the whole community. A living place that goes beyond the exhibition function to become an educational, training and experimentation laboratory through the ITS Arcademy. We are now expanding the ITS seismographic nature: the talents we bring to Trieste will be coming back as accomplished professionals to share the depths of their soul in a land that has always been, historically, a place for exchange and sharing. New talents, new professionals will be allowed to blossom, nurturing the sensibility and receptiveness of this territory. The ITS Arcademy will open in 2020 and it will be for everyone, from the 5 years to the 100 years old of age.”

Tiziana Benussi, President of the Fondazione CRTrieste: “The Fondazione CRTrieste supports the work of Barbara Franchin and EVE’s staff since 2004, in particular appreciating the important role of enhancing young talents in the fashion sector; one of the flagships of the Country’s system. From now on, the support to EVE will be even more concrete: some of the spaces of our historic building, about 650 square meters, will be allocated for the headquarters of the ITS Creative Archive, allowing it to be enhanced and made available to the public. Moreover, these spaces may in future become a place where the Italian “know how” will be expressed at its most, becoming a gym for young talents. I would like to thank the Municipality of Trieste, in the person of our Mayor, Roberto Dipiazza, who had already identified public spaces where to host the archive and who then shared this solution, immediately realizable, allowing the Fondazione to start this project.”

A UNITED TERRITORY, A COMMON PROJECT

Regione Friuli Venezia Giulia continues to provide its support to ITS within an increasingly more cohesive and united territory in promoting the growth of the creative platform. Also the City of Trieste confirms its support to ITS.

Massimiliano Fedriga, President of Friuli Venezia Giulia: “ITS deserves credit for two major reasons: for investing on young talents and for providing them – and the whole Friuli Venezia Giulia Region – with an outstanding international showcase. Such a proactive attitude, aimed at enhancing the value of capabilities, and at helping demand and supply meet on the job market, is also strongly shared by the Region, which has therefore chosen to renew its support to the initiative. Keep up the good work and, most all, enjoy yourselves.”

Roberto Dipiazza, Mayor of Trieste: “It is a pleasure and a duty to be close to ITS - International Talent Support. The event in which I believe since its debut in 2002 and which I have always supported in my previous mandates as Mayor and to which, with pleasure, I continue to contribute in this mandate as well by supporting an event that not only promotes young talents, but allows the city to enjoy international visibility also in the fashion sector. The talent and vision of Barbara Franchin and her team that, from the very first edition, have managed to involve young talents from more than 80 countries, represent well Trieste, which, more than ever, is the city of the possible, capable of growing in cultural terms, economic and social, able to create a system and be a protagonist and not a spectator of its own growth that, thanks to Porto Vecchio will bring new employment, giving everyone the deserved satisfactions.”

ITS brings the world to Trieste and Trieste to the world, and once again will rely on its natural allies Trieste Trasporti, Trieste Airport FVG and Trieste Terminal Passeggeri.

ITS 2019 CONCEPT: SINCERELY TRUE

ITS is empathic, spontaneous, sincere, natural, naïf.

In a time when we compete against each other screaming, when we project our own image filtered in a totally artificial manner, when we give room to misleading messages and truth becomes ineffable and confusing, ITS seems anachronistic: it invites you to come forward amidst of chaos, to muffle the noise, and to simply be yourself. To truly be yourself, because truth doesn't need to be yelled out.

ITS aims at being like slow breathing, like a breath of fresh air, without filters, without irony, without the endless need to show how cool we are. ITS aims at breaking down all the walls and all the superstructures.

ITS aims at baring its soul, at exchanging views, without barriers.

ITS aims at telling the beauty and the truth that each individual will bring along. The truth of the finalists, of their stories, the beauty of their creations. Simply. Honestly.

PARTNERS

A strong network of companies will give their support to ITS for the 2019 edition:

Renzo Rosso, President of OTB: “Having been part of ITS for the last 17 years, we feel part of a real family. A family of talented young creative minds from all over the world whom we have the luck to meet first hand, to be inspired by, to mentor and to give a chance in this industry and in life. I will never stop urging them to be brave, to think out of the box, to innovate and to move us all forward. The future of fashion passes by them.”

“The interests of illycaffè in beauty and the arts in general extends to many territories – comments Massimiliano Pogliani, CEO of illycaffè – contributing to the diffusion of creativity and culture. Promoting young talent is an important asset to our company strategy, capable of perfectly integrating the ethical and aesthetic dimensions of the illy universe. For this reason, we have proudly confirmed our support for the next two editions of ITS.”

OTB is an international fashion group, the parent company of iconic fashion brands Diesel, Maison Margiela, Marni, Viktor&Rolf, Paula Cademartori, and state-of-the-art companies Staff International and Brave Kid. The mission of OTB is to build brands for a new breed of consumers - enabling development, challenging the rules and fostering creativity. The group finances several initiatives aimed at discovering new creative talents, such as ITS, supported by OTB since the very beginning.

The philosophy that prompted illycaffè to open up a fast-track channel of communication with the art grew out of a veritable ideal that we pursue: the union of the beautiful and the good, integrating an ethical dimension with aesthetics. For a company as illycaffè that pursues the sustainable quality, seeking beauty is a key component of its corporate culture and ethics that extends into many different areas and helps disseminate art and creativity.

Swatch is excited to approach ITS 2019: another page has been written about this amazing creative romance and the ITS Time for Coffee project will be unveiled. 2018 winner of the newly created award, British designer Tolu Coker, has been spending 10 weeks in the Swatch Art Peace Hotel and her project will be about that experience, and for sure a flavourful and rich one.

SPONSORS

The mission of ITS is shared by prestigious sponsors:

International Talent Support is created under the Patronage of Ministero dei Beni Culturali, Autorità di Sistema del Mare Adriatico Orientale, Pitti Immagine and Camera Nazionale della Moda Italiana.

"We are thrilled to collaborate to a new edition of ITS – says Raffaello Napoleone, CEO of Pitti Immagine – and to contribute to a project that over the years has brought recognition to a large number of young fashion designers from all over the world. We have always admired the passion and competence of the ITS team, their ability to come into contact with schools and their farsightedness in selecting the best talents. Pitti Immagine organises fairs, sets up close relationships with thousands of companies, attracts the most qualified international buyers and produces events of high communication impact. These are the tools that we, in turn, use to support the ITS young designers: in making the winner participate to the winter edition of Pitti Uomo in January 2020, and in offering her/him a one year mentorship through our Pitti Tutorship direction."

Carlo Capasa, President of Camera Nazionale della Moda Italiana: "Supporting talents and enabling them to express themselves and grow is an indispensable commitment that all players in the fashion industry should see as an institutional priority. Alongside sustainability and digitalization, it is one of the pillars of Camera Nazionale della Moda Italiana's strategy. This is why we are proud to be able once again to support ITS in concrete terms, with a prize. The creativity and energy that go into Barbara's work and that of her platform are a source of huge inspiration."
